Various webinars will have captions by BIVR members:
Sheryll Holley, ASTTR (info@livecaptioninguk.com) and Joanne Petre, ASTTR (jp_captions@aol.co.uk).
We are grateful to these members for volunteering.

FRIDAY, 6 AUGUST

International Beer Day has been celebrated since 2007, and from 2012 it's held on the first Friday in August. With its origins in the United States, it has now become a global celebration crossing 6 continents, 80 countries and over 200 cities.

There are three declared purposes:

- * to gather with friends and enjoy the taste of different beers;
- * to celebrate breweries, bartenders and beer technicians;
- * to unite the world under a beer umbrella and celebrate beers of the world across the globe.

Whether you drink it from a barrel or a bottle, or perhaps another tippable is more to your taste, we are kicking off our summertime TIPSS event with a virtual meet-up. Friday night's TIPS-See is a chance for you to catch up with colleagues and friends virtually, see how everyone is doing, and then we will have a brief/short discussion on briefs/shortforms to get us in the mood for the weekend of webinars ahead. Be sure to have your favourites at your fingertips; we will be providing a tip sheet of them at the end of the weekend. Whether it's water, tea, coffee, wine, spirits or soft drinks you prefer as opposed to a locally or internationally brewed beer, everyone is welcome!

TIPS-See:

SATURDAY, 7 AUGUST

9.30 a.m. – 10.15 a.m. Presentation on the recently launched platform AccessLOOP - past Council Member Orla Pearson, ASTTR:

For those with hearing loss, a live-streamed event can be nearly impossible to process with the tools that are currently available. AccessLOOP makes live events accessible for everyone and provides a simple solution which allows event producers to open up their audience. Launched on World Hearing Day 2021 and with no download required, AccessLOOP is the “world’s first, easy-to-use online tool for adding live captions and signing to online events.”

Beyond 2020 – a round-table/square-screen mental health discussion:

It's been over a year's worth of mostly lows and not very many highs for so many of us, but with the vaccination rollout in the UK in particular, things are starting to look up. Are you feeling anxious about returning to in-person working? How will you handle situations of large groups, whether on your commute to work or on the job? Generally, how are you feeling mentally? Please do not feel obliged to share but it may help to hear stories of others and how they intend on dealing with, or indeed have dealt with already, certain situations as we start to see how life might be after 2020/21.

30 mins CPD awarded by BIVR available.

World of Freelancers founder, Sabina Lohr:

You may have seen blog posts from Sabina on one or more of your socials. If you haven't already subscribed to receive Sabina's blog updates hot off the press and direct to your inbox, we have a feeling you will do after this webinar. Sabina says she "created World of Freelancers to help you discover how to work for yourself at a job you will love and achieve a healthy work/life balance so that you can live the life you want and deserve." Much like this TIPSS event, there is something for everyone on WoF!

You can find World of Freelancers on Facebook, LinkedIn, Pinterest, and Twitter. AND you'll also be able to find her at our event this year.

Intralingual translation: types and processes - Carlo Eugeni :

He's back!! We are thrilled to have Carlo Eugeni join us again this year. Carlo is Philosophy Doctor in English for Special Purposes, and Lecturer in audio-visual translation at the University of Leeds. He is the vice-director of the international journal of Communication and Mediation CoMe (www.comejournal.com), co-edits the "Journal of Professional Reporting and Transcription – Tiro" (<https://tiro.intersteno.org/>), and chairs the Scientific Committee of the Intersteno. Thanks to his studies on respeaking, Carlo has been pioneering research and training on live subtitling since 2003 (www.respeakingonair.org). He is the intellectual output leader of the Erasmus projects LTA on live subtitling (<http://ltaproject.eu/>) and Tran2Validate on Easy-to-Read language (<http://www.train2validate.org/>).
